They are thoroughly conversant with the important business in which they are engaged, and combine all the requisites that tend to insure success. Mr. Caldwell, formerly cashier of the Bank of Hopkinsville, and an excellent business manager, and Mr. Turnley, a practical farmer, who has cultivated the weed for many years with eminent success, are well calculated to attract our tobscco cultivators. The firm are well known to our planters, and will always command an extensive patronage, which they richly merit. Their enterprise in the tobacco business should command the admiration of all who are interested in that great trade.

FATAL AFFRAY AT MT. CARMEL. - Ws learn, says the Vincennes (Ind.) Sun, that on tho day of the election at Mt. Carmel, Ill. (Tuesdny, 3d inst.), a bloody and fatal nffray ocetween a Mr. Frank Jones and a Mr. Newkirk, in which the former was knocked down. This led to an altercation between Mr. N. and Mr. F. M. Stanton, Deputy Provost Marshal. Stanton took umbrage at language used by Newkirk, and threatened him with arrest. At this juncture, G. W. Besore (a lawyer of Mt. Carmel) interfered, denying the authority of Stanton to make the arrest. After a few words the latter drew his pistol on Besore, fired several times, two of the shots taking effect, and we understand that Mr. B. has since died from his wounds. During the melee Newkirk firsd at Stanton, one ball taking effect in the wrist, another in the groin, and a third grazing the top of his head, inflicting a slight woundthe two first shots are very serious. Newkirk was also dangerously wounded by Stanton, and it is reported he is dying.

Herschel V. Johnson, the Douglas candidate for Vice President in 1860, and now a member of the Confederate Senate, concluded a speech thus: "When is this struggls to end? Shall we conquer the North? No; we have no desire to do this. Shall the North conquer us? Forbidit, heaven! But I tell you this war will never he ended till we are all conquered by the chastising hand of Providence, and we are brought back to the virtues of our forefathers. Though our armies have been victorious in nearly every battle, yet almost every man and woman is bathed in tears and cast down in sorrow with the loss of soms friend or kinsman. Every hearthstone is reft of its enjoyments by mourning and weeping, and the wails of sadness are heard all over the land. This is the chastisement of God, inflicted upon as for a departure from the paths of virtue. This is the lesson of the hour. Then let us return with humility to the practice of those great virtues which our forefathers cherished, and without which our liberties

It will consist of eight spans-four of 225 feet, three of 210 feet, and one of 820 feet, making a total length of 1,890 feet. The channel span, which is the longest, will bave an elevation of 90 feet above the water. The width of the bridge, from edgs to edge, will be 16 feet 6 inches, whilst the height, from the masonry to the top, will be 28 feet. It is estimated that the weight of the bridge will be one ton and a half per foot, making an agoregate weight or 28,335 tons, or 5,670,000 pounds. The work of erection will be commenced about the last of this ruonth, and it is expected that the first span will be completed during the present season.

The regiment of heavy artillery being raised in Covington by General Green Clay Smith is fast filling up. Captain A.S. Bloom, who is recruiting for the regiments, informs us that he has already in camp fifty-seven mer, and he expects soon to have a full company. To those who, at a distance, may be creditog the lugubrious stories that have been told the present misery and duliness of New Orleans, who cannot disposses themselves of the idea that this great city has become a sort of remote desert, guarded over by Federal the 6th Tennessee cavalry, troops, with nothing to break the monotony of existence, and where the slumhering fire of counter-revolution are perpetually striving o break out, held down by force, but as ardent and vital as ever, we have only to say they are laboring under a great mistake. Writers we have had in abundance—some local, others again correspondents of Northern journa's, who have done much to create this impression, but what they have written has been far more the result of sourced and distem-pered minds than faithful portraitures of the reaches us freighted with the wives and children of those who have come here to reside very many of them permanently—among us. These families all bring their interests, influence, wealth, necessities, labor, and all that go to luild up the prosperity of communities. They all, more or less, give an impetus to busimess, create demands, supply wants, circulate money, and give vigor and encouragement to every department of life.

Mr. Peter Roselle, of Kingston, Mo., died a few days since at the age of 110 years. He bad two wives and twenty-five children.

From present appearances, everything de-otes the brightest and most prosperousseason that New Orleans has known since this unhup-py war commenced. With the influx of vis-itors and residents, we see commerce simultaseously reviving, both on land and on the river, and only needing encouragement and the gradual removal of restrictions to resume accustomed channels. Our grand theatre pens Thursday evening, ander unusually themping circumstances, and with arrich a company as perhaps ever before trod the boards of the Varieties. The city is blessed with a degree of health never before surpassed; and ll we need is the cultivation of those feelings of good-will and brotherhood between all classes of the community, upon which our nutual happiness and prosperity must entirely tivity at all the principal military points at There appears to be a good deal of acthis time, hat much uncertainty as to the jedts movements in progress and as to what has been and is likely to he accomplished. Meade seems to he advancing and Lce's army retreating, but what the retreat indicates is matter of the merest conjecture. One despatch says that he will give battle with his whole force in what has been known to he his favorite position, another states that he is falling back npon Richmond to make a stand there, and a third announces that he, with probably a portion of his army, bas gone to the front of Chattanooga, and that he is certainly in command of Bragg's army. We suppose that if any considerable number of his troops are left in the Rappahannock and Rapid Ann regions, Gen. Meade will do his hest to bring on a hattle, for it is nuderstood that he is instructed from Washington to fight at all hazards. IIATS! We should all be much better satisfied with the prospects there if we knew more in regard to the condition and designs of the enemy, or even if we had reason to believe that the authorities at the Capital or Meade himself knew much more than wedo. A telegraphic report from Chattauooga is FOR that Bragg's army is retreating in the direction of Rome and Atlanta. This may or may not be truc. Atlanta is a powerful position, more powerful even than Chattanooga, and it could unquestionably be held for a considerable time against our troops by a far inferior GENT'S FUR COLLARS, force. Gen. But this is a trouble which is perhaps without remedy. GENT'S SOFT HATS, We know not on what day three-fourths of the combined armies of Bragg and Lee may strike either the Army of the Cumberland or FINE MOLESKIN DRESS HATS the Army of the l'otomac, and yet, if any great Federal movement were made from one of our two armies in the direction of the other, the fact would probably be known at the rebel capital before it would at Washing-

Our people have for weeks been expecting to hear of General Wm. T. Sherman's having joined the Army of the Cumberland from Mississippi. Indeed they have heard it fre- Manufacturer of Gilt Work and Dealer in quently, but up to this time no junction seems to have taken place. This cannot be General Sherman's fault, for he is immensely energetic in his movements. But he has had, in his tremendous march, immense difficulties to contend with. The rebels, knowing the great importance of keeping him hack, have torn up the whole railroad and put every possible obstruction in his way, all supplies have been bremss of destroyed in advance of him, and large rebel forces have entrenched themselves and fonght him at every formidable point on his ronte. He has driven back and scattered them in every engagement, but in each case they have only had to rally at some appointed place further ahead and again resist the hard and toilsome march of our brave troops. We shall not be surprised if Gen. Sherman is unable to join Gen. Thomas in less than two or three weeks, and very possibly, before the expiration of that time, nothing will remain to Photograph & Ambrotype Apparatus, be done in the vicinity of Chattanooga. How vastly better it would have been if Sherman's troops had come up from Mississippi by steamhoat and railroad and then gone from here to Mich apprehension is felt for General Burnside's command, but not, we think, justly. His situation is one of interest, for the indications from Richmond are that the rebels are determined to crush him if such an achievement is within the limits of possibility. But we do not think they can execute this determination. The great danger we conceive to great be that a large force from Lce's army and a large force from Bragg's may advance upon him simultaneously and in concert from opposite directious, with the view of grinding him between the upper and nether millstones. MR. PRENTICE—DEAR Str.: When you receive this note I shall he on my way to join Wheeler. You can make what use of it you choose, but I am going to tell you a startling piece of news. It is the determination of the rebels to drive the Army of the Cumberland hack into Kentucky, and then, if the Federals use Greek fire to destroy Charleston, they say they will burn Louisville and Cincinnati at the same time with Capt. Travis's Greek fire. It is a great secret. They say but for the Yankee property owners in Louisville Kentucky would long ago have joined the South. Louisville is bound to be burnt in three years. Believe me, 'tis the truth. NOVEMBER 10, 1863.

The writer of this, who impudently calls us 'Dear Sir," says that he is on his way to join Wheeler. We trust, that, very soon after joining Wheeler, he will be on his way to Camp Chase to join John Morgan. What he calls his "startling piece of news" would certainly be such if it could only startle somehody. He says that it is the determination of the rebels to drive the Army of the Camberland back into Kentucky. Ah yes, but it is the determination of the Army of the Cumberland not to be driven back into Kenherland not to he driven back into Kenberland not to be driven back into Kentucky. At any rate the Army of the Cumberland stands hetween Louisville and Captain Travis's Greek fire, and that's a good deal more than stands between the rebel leaders and hell fire. Our correspondent proclaims that Lonisville is bound to he burned in three years. Well that's a pretty liberal time. "Only Good Sauce," May, 1861. Tell Lya & Praand applicable to EVERY VARIETY The above SAUCE is not only the sear and most ropulas conniment known, but the most economical as a few drops in Soup, Gravy, nr with Nich, hot and cold Joints, Beef Steak, Game, &c., Impart an exquiste zest, which unprincipled Sance manufacturers have to vain endeavored to imitate. On the Breakfast, Luncheon, Dinner, or Eupper Table on the breakfast, Lancacon, Danner, or Employ Table a cruet containing "LEA & PEKRINS" WOBURNI TERSIIIRE SAUGE" is indispensable.

To appreciate the excellent qualities of this delicious preparation it is only necessary to purchase a small bottle of the genuine, of a respectable grocer in dealer, as many Hotel and Bestaurant proprieture seldom place the Pure Sance before their guests, hat substitute a genuine bottle filled with a spurious mixture.

CITY ITEMS.—The U. S. District Court convenes to-day. Main street was alive with vehicles of every description yesterday. The Government business in this city is enormous at the present time. The city is unusually quiet. The police and military authorities have no business of any $20 reward.

description before them. cattle passing through the city for the Army of the Cumberland during the past few days. Yesterday 126 head went through.

racks No. 1 yesterday, and a large number were forwarded to their regiments.

The remains of Major Whitehead were escorted to the mailboat yesterday by the command of Captain Gilmore. James Martin, a Government teamster, was arrested by the military authorities yesterday, for selling liquor to soldiers and buving clothiug of them. He was confined in the Military Prison.

Benjamin Guile, a notorious character, was arrested by the military authorities yesterday, for desertion. He has escaped several times from the custody of officers. A short time since, he jumped from a train on the Louisville, New Albany, and Chicago Railroad, while it was under full headway, and made his escape from those having him in charge. He is shrewd rascal and slippery as an eel. A fire broke out in a double tenement brick dwelling on Jefferson street, between Campbell and Wenzel, owned by Mr. Miller, and was only saved by the exertions of our excellent fire department. We did not learn the amount of damage done.

A large number of tickets were sold yesterday for the concert to-night at the Masonic Temple, and we have every reason to believe that, with the sales of to-day, the hall will he crowded this evening. Every one seems desirous of contributing his mite toward this laudable work.

The season for balls and social parties has opened. Last evening there was a very pleasnnt assemblage at Masonic Temple, tripping the light fantastic toe. We have good reason at to believe that the coming winter will he made joyous by the gatherings of our lads and lassies. A public ball for the benefit of the poor would, no donht, yield a very handsome sum st the present time. There is more travel from this city to Jeffersonville and New Albany on Sunday than upon any other day of the week, yet there is only one boat running at each point. The y occasioned by this deficiency is very anboying, and we hope that the companies will endeavor to meet the demand of their patrons at their earliest convenience. Refugee families from different parts of tho South are arriving in this city almost daily, in the most destitute circumstances. Our military authorities have very generously cared for them thus far.

CITY COUNCIL .- This body met last evening and transacted the following business: An ordinance was passed to bowlder Kentucky street, from Second to Floyd.

An ordinance to open Gray street, from Shelhy to Clay, was passed. A resolution to raise the grado of Brook street, and bowlder the same, was rejected. The reports of the Fire Department, Police, Hospitals, Alms-house, and Street Inspectors were received and adopted.

A resolution passed both boards to increase he pay of street hands to $1 50; cart drivers, $3 50; quarry hands at Work-house, $2; policemen, $2; and firemen $2 per day; and also to raise the salary of day watchmen at Workhouse to $50 per month.

In the upper hoard, a resolution was passed allowing W. K. Thomas $7,589 29 for keeping contrabunds committed to the city prison. A resolution passed the same board, appointing a committe of five-two from the upper and three from the lower hoard-to petition the Legislature to refund said amount to the city. Messrs Hubbard and Beard were appointed from the upper hoard.

Adjourned to meet next Thursday evening. Judge G. W. Lane, of the United States District Court for the Northern and Southern Districts of Alabama, died yesterday morning | Wen's Furnishing Goods at the Galt House in this city. Upon the occupation of the city of Huntsville by the Federal armice, Judge Lane was found to have maintained his loyalty, though it had proved imposible for him to exercise his judicial functions. When the tide of war was rolled back toward our State, Judge Lane, for the personal security of himself and family, left all the endearments of home and came as a refugee to our city, where he has suffered from impaired health for some months. He was a gentleman of fine legal taleot and of the most generous temperament. His funeral will take place this afternoon, as will be seen in our ohituary column. LOUISVILLE TURATRE,-Sheridan's celebrated comedy of the School for Scandal will be produced this evening for the benefit of Miss Laura Keene, who has won great celebrity for her rendition of the character of Lady Teazle. The comedy is cast very strongly, Mrs. Lawe, Miss France, and Mcssrs. Levich, Peters, Mackay, Dawson, Conner, Weaver, Lannier, Duncan, &c., appearing. The perennial fame of this most brilliaot of the BEST MAKE OF PETTET'S KID GLOVES AT dramatic works of the gifted author, the unusnal excellence of the distribution, and the merits of the talented beneficiary combine to render the prospect of a crowded audience

WCOD'S THEATRE. - For the benefit of Mr. Joseph Practor, this evening, he will appear as Ethelwood in the new pluy of Ambitiou, which has been some time in preparatiou, produced with care, and cast to the entire strength of the company. We have never seen Ambition, to our recollection, but the fact that Mr. Proctor has added it to his repertory is an assurance of its merit. His many friends and admirers will of course take care that there are no vacant seats to-night.

The Minstrel Concert at Masonic Hall to-night, for the benefit of the poor, tenders a varied bill, in which all the members of the troupe will assist. The fine company of vocalists and eccentrics have grown greatly in favor with our citizens, and the liberal proffer of the entire proceeds of this evening to the cause of charity will be properly appreciated

HIGH-PRICED TOBACCO.—Two hogsheads were sold at the Ninth-street Warehouse yesterday at the handsome sums of $24 25 and $30 25. It was grown by the Brown brothers, in Owen county. At the Boone, three hogsheads were sold at from $23 to $30 25, grown hy the Smoot brothers, of the same county. CLARKE COUNTY, IND .- The quota of Clarke county under the new call is two haudred and twenty-three, of which cighty-six is assigned 150 BBLS BOURBON WHISKEY, I year old; to Jessersonville township.
